Age Increases show the amount the policy will increase over the individual's next four birthdays. These increases will occur the month the person reaches the specified age.

Increase History shows how much the specified company has increased rates not related to age. These increase can occur at any time. This information has been tracked since 6/1/2010. If nothing is listed in this column, no non-age related increases have occurred.

Lives: Number of people who have enrolled with this company
Premium: Dollar amount of premiums paid by all enrollees.
Loss Ratio: The percentage of premium dollars spent on medical claims.
Market %: Percentage of enrollees who choose this company.

Market data is from the previous calendar year.

Supplement Definitions

AM Best Rating: This is a rating of the financial strength. A+ is superior. D is poor. Companies must pay to be rated by AM Best and S&P. If an n/a is listed, the company has chosen not to be rated or is too new to be rated.

Effective Date: This is the date the current monthly premium went into effect.

HH Discount: Household Discount may be offered to individual who have another member of their household eligible to purchase a supplement. Contact the company for their specific guidelines.

Policy Fee: This is a one time fee applied when the person completes their application.

Parent: This is the parent insurance company selling this policy.

Plan: The coverage offered by this specific policy (Plan G or Plan N for example). See brochure entitled Medicare Supplement Policies: A Guide for Nebraskans for detailed listing of coverage options.

Rating Class: Some companies offer different rating classes with different monthly premiums. This can affect those who have to go through underwriting.

Rate Type: Attained Age means the premium increases with age. Issue Age means the premium will not increase because of age. Community Rated means everyone pays the same price, regardless of age.

S&P Rating: This is a rating of the financial strength. AAA is the highest rating.

Years in Market: Years the specified policy has been sold in Nebraska.
